LIGHTING YOUR BBQ

WARNING! Do not use spirit or petrol for lighting or re-lighting. Use only firelighters complying to EN 1860-3.

1. Remove the cooking grill and place a small quantity of charcoal into the charcoal pan. Light in accordance with the instructions on the charcoal pack.
2. Close the lid and open the air vent to ensure the charcoal lights. Opening the air vents will increase the airflow and cause the charcoal to burn faster. Wear oven gloves when adjusting the air vent.
3. When the charcoal becomes red hot, add more charcoal for cooking. The maximum fill level for charcoal is 1 kg.
4. Replace the cooking grill and wait approximately 20-30 minutes before cooking. Do not cook before the charcoal has a coating of ash.

WARNING: When using your barbecue for the first time, allow the charcoal to remain red hot for at least 30 minutes before cooking.

WARNING: Accessible parts will be hot - wear oven gloves when touching the barbecue and adjusting the air vent.

WARNING: Do not extinguish with water as this may damage the barbecue.

FOOD SAFETY

- Thoroughly defrost frozen meat and poultry in the refrigerator before cooking. Keep raw meat and poultry separate from cooked foods.
- Always wash hands after handling raw meat and poultry, before handling any ready to eat foods.
- Wipe and disinfect surfaces that have been in contact with raw meat and poultry.
- When barbecuing meat and poultry, make sure the barbecue is extremely hot. Place the larger, thicker portions furthest away from the most intense heat to ensure thorough cooking without burning and turn regularly.
- Use separate utensils for handling raw meat/poultry and cooked food on the barbecue, or wash them thoroughly between uses.
- To check whether meat, particularly poultry, is cooked, pierce the flesh with a skewer or fork; the juices should run clear. Ensure the product is piping hot throughout.

CLEANING AND CARE

Removing the Ash

- Allow the barbecue and ash to become completely cold before emptying.
- Remove the ash cup and safely dispose of the cold ash in a fire proof container, or dampen with water to ensure the ash is entirely cold before disposing in a suitable container.
- Remove the cooking grill before inverting the barbecue and emptying the ash into a suitable container.

Care and Maintenance

- Empty the ash from the barbecue and clean after each use.
- The fire bowl, cooking grill and charcoal pan can be cleaned using barbecue cleaning fluid. Avoid using wire wool and brushes as these may scratch the surface.
- When not in use this barbecue should be stored in a dry location or under a waterproof cover.
